Catfish and Mandala is the story of an American odyssey—a solo bicycle voyage around the Pacific Rim to Vietnam—made by a young Vietnamese-American man in pursuit of both his adopted homeland and his forsaken fatherland. Andrew X. Pham was born in Vietnam and raised in California. His father had been a POW of the Vietcong; his family came to America as "boat people."

The FVHS English Department debuted the novel "Catfish and Mandala" this year in junior English classes, bringing the first Vietnamese-American voice in its core curriculum. The book's inclusion, part of the department's larger effort to maintain and expand a collection of diverse voices in its literature, fills a long-standing gap in a school whose student body was 54% Asian in the 2016-2017 school year .
