According to widespread reports in the press, Prime Minister Boris Johnson is planning to move the ban the sale of new petrol and diesel-engined cars from the old cut-off from 2035 to 2030. That's following a move back in February, when it moved from the previous goalpost of 2040. So, all of a sudden it looks like the end of new petrol and diesel-engined cars is looming into view rather ...
