“It is not your fault...” Mental illnesses are an illness just like any other. When you have the flu, it is not your fault for coughing or sneezing or having a fever. In this same vein, when you are suffering from a mental illness, it is not your fault for the symptoms that you exhibit, whatever they may be.

All of this in my mind was my fault, and therefor he had to be upset with me. But the truth is, even if he was upset that this day didn ' t go to his liking, it is not my fault. It is not my fault if someone else is sad, mad, angry, etc. I am not responsible for every one else ' s feelings. Now of course if I did something that actually hurt them then I should claim responsibility and apologize. But this was not one of those times.

A: Most insurers will waive the excess if they agree you are not at fault for an accident, but this is subject to several criteria. For example, there may be a question of contributory negligence on your part, even if the other driver is mostly responsible for an accident, and this can be time-consuming to resolve.
