Inspirational stories about courage. Late in the evening I was walking in the park. Suddenly I heard scream coming from behind bushes. I stopped to listen and understood that a woman was attacked. I heard sounds of fighting and muttering. For several moments I was hesitating, should I get involved? I panicked. I was frightened for my own safety.

There are eight true stories in this book. All of them give us courage. "Runnin for her Life" is the most memorable story for me. Ana Fidelia Quirot was a famous runner, but one day she was close to death because of burn injury. But she never gave up running and underwent rehabilitation so hard. Finally, she won the silver medal in Atlanta Olympic Games.
