The original classic story about growing up with drugs and sex and about learning to survive on the streets of New York--once again in print. An urban classic of coming of age. Copyright © Libri GmbH. All rights reserved.

Written between the ages of twelve and fifteen, this diary tells the story of Jim Carroll, a kid growing up stealing, hustling, getting high, playing basketball, and trying to find something pure on the streets of New York

Recounts the atmosphere of New York City in the early Seventies and records his experiences with many now-famous bohemians and his wavering battles against drug addiction

The author, basketball coach at St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, describes his school's season as well as the seasons of his two sons at Duke and Seton Hall

Poems deal with love, longing, friendship, memory, time, and life in the city
