This book is essential reading for all Executive Assistants and PAs who want to improve their working lives, and the lives of their peers, by making their working days run much more smoothly and efficiently. Cathy Harris is Executive Assistant to the CEO of Discovery Invest, part of Discovery Holdings in South Africa. She co-initiated the Discovery Internal Assistant Network in 2001. Awarded the title of South African National Secretary of the Year in 2006, it has become her objective and ambition to develop the secretarial profession forward, in order for assistants to be recognised as strategic partners with the leadership that they support. She has seen assistants who have never quite known what to do or the correct processes to use, who waste precious time seeking the right information and connecting with the right people. What their organisation needs is an Internal Assistant Network. Cathy has been in the profession for over 36 years. In this book she shares her experience and knowledge, showing why an Internal Assistant Network is so valuable, and how you can set one up that will succeed, thrive and add huge value to your organisation.

We all have a personal brand whether we realize it or not. It determines not only our long-term earning potential but also at times our future opportunities. A strong personal brand cannot be faked, it needs to be authentic and is refined over time by being consistent and professional. The goal of this book is to get practical about building and maintaining a strong personal brand. In a world where more assistants are competing for fewer positions we need to become aware of the value of our own personal brands, and how to make our brands work for us. We need to know what the things are that build or damage our brands, and how we can ensure that our brands are considered desirable. This book will take you on a journey in which you will analyse your own brand's health, learn tools for brand building, understand the brand breakers you might encounter in your life, and discover brand recovery strategies, by the end of which you will be able to establish and maintain your own brand as a premium one throughout your career.

The Definitive Executive Assistant and Managerial Handbook is a leadership handbook for all PAs and those aspiring to senior roles. It provides best practice advice and the skills needed to succeed to the top.

"This book is essential reading for any PA or Executive Assistant in helping them manage their email inbox. It is extremely well written, providing very practical solutions to the problems of email overload and managing one's inbox. The style is engaging in a 'day in the life of a PA' format...great read but more important very useful practical advice" Professor Sir Cary Cooper, Manchester Business School, University of Manchester
"Thought provoking and intuitive - an uncomplicated guide to email management."
Rebeka Adamson, Administrative Professional Award Winner 2015, Association Administrative Professionals New Zealand "Business communication is increasingly overwhelming for assistants as many deal with a myriad of emails. The narrative of Max and Sophia in this book is a super guide on effective email management; from email content to folder

Florence Katono, Pitman PA of the Year 2015

After 30+ years in this profession and I still learnt so much from this book.

Brilliantly written! Loved the way the characters, Sophie and Max, shared their ideas and simple solutions to make our lives easier and less stressed whilst dealing with our over-crowded inboxes and at the same time sharing some interesting tips on email etiquette. Michele Thwaites - President, Professional Association for Secretaries & Administrative Assistants

The New Executive Assistant is a guide for EAs and their executives, designed to help them reconsider the EA role and look at it in a new light. The premise is simple: the more effective the EA, the more effective the executive ... and the more effective the organisation.
