~~Medieval Household - Boydell and Brewer~~

Daily life for peasants consisted of working the land. Life was harsh, with a limited diet and little comfort. Women were subordinate to men, in both the peasant and noble classes, and were expected to ensure the smooth running of the household. Children had a 50% survival rate beyond age one, and began to contribute to family life around age twelve.

~~Daily Medieval Life | Western Civilization~~

The medieval household was, like modern households, the center of family life for all classes of European society. Yet in contrast to the household of today, it consisted of many more individuals than the nuclear family. From the household of the king to the humblest peasant dwelling, more or less distant relatives and varying numbers of servants and dependents would cohabit with the master of the house and his immediate family. The structure of the medieval household was largely dissolved by th

I live near Sheffield. That ' s Yorkshire for them that don ' t know. The centre of Britain. In 2008 the cost of a city centre apartment with hardly enough room to swing a cat - was about £ 625 rent for a 1 bedroom maybe 2. In 2020 it ' s now £ 925. So I now live in a house. Here unless you are from a rich family with good jobs life sucks.
