If you regularly send out products and documents through the post or via a courier, you'll already know the importance of good packaging – and more so if you regularly receive them. Often, problems arise when people try to fit items into packaging that's completely inappropriate – too big, too small or simply the wrong shape or strength for what's inside.

A post office box (commonly abbreviated as P.O. box, or also known as a postal box) is a uniquely addressable lockable box located on the premises of a post office station.. In some regions, particularly in Africa, there is no door to door delivery of mail; for example, in Kenya. Consequently, renting a PO box has traditionally been the only way to receive mail in such countries.
