The story of a vampire during the crusades was a very interesting idea to me. The whole story takes place in a time of religious furor, when the daily realities of death by known causes, such as violence, and unknown causes, such as disease, were explained in mixed terms of both Pagan and Christian religions.

Latest Reviews From Amazon UK - 5 stars "Great book, with a great storyline" By covgal72 "This book is great value for money. It takes on a different angle of vampire story, rather than the usual Vlad the Impaler, or teen love story. I loved the little snippets of background on each character, and I can see lots of scope for a series of books. This book would make a great movie. Five stars from me." 5 stars Actual Vampire! By Siobhan Malloy Absolutely loved this book! There were no sparkles, no magic daylight rings... Just blood, guts, gore and sex - exactly what you want in a vampire book! Excellent :) 5 stars "Longinus The Vampire" By miss g duncan Highly enjoyable novel, it has many twists and turns filled with passion and war, unmissable reading, a must buy for all! 5 stars: "Great read" By David "Nice to see someone writing a vampire story that's not aimed at teenage girls! Great we read, got through it in a weekend." 4 stars: Fantastic story that ticks all the boxes By Andrew Morrison I really loved this book and I would recommend it to any vampire fans (Twilight fans need not apply, this is a real vampire story)." Five Stars: Great Read For Holidays By SusieV "I do not usually read vampire books but having read The Passage and Twelve I thought I would try this. I found the story kept your attention and must admit did not guess the ending. It's an easy read with possibly more sexual perversion than I would like but that did not spoil my enjoyment of it.
